

FIRST NATIONS PARTNERSHIP

February 5, 2010

Dear Friend,

As part of what we do at NAIM, we want to be about mobilizing First Nation Missionaries. Would you partner with us by referring us to individuals, churches or schools with whom we can talk? Names can be sent to Brian Fink at smi@naim.ca

We are also offering a summer ministry opportunity, placing teams in First Nation communities in Saskatchewan. We are looking for individuals who love Jesus and can build relationships and share with others their personal experience with Christ. Each band has different expectations, so we encourage the summer workers to meet with a youth worker or counselor from the band to gain information on how they can be a benefit to the reserve.

This program is called the Summer Ministry Initiative (SMI). Orientation and Debrief will take place at the Minahik Wasau Centre in Timber Bay, Saskatchewan. The dates for this summer are June 28 – August 12 for the seven week ministry and from June 28 – July 20 for the three week ministry. Further information, including cost, can be found at www.fnpnaim.ca and follow the links for SMI.

Thank you,
